re Wm. & Stephen Loch.

Sir :

In reply to your communication of the 30th ulto., with enclosure of letter from the brother of the above named, I would inform you that an officer, from this department made enquiries and learned that Stephen and William Loch are at present residing at 692 Ashdale Avenue. The officer delivered the letter to them and they promised to write and also send assistance to their brother.

Yours truly,

Colonel.

My dear Sir,

Kindly excuse the trouble I am causing you with my present letter; but as several steps on my part have been without any favourable result and being quite at a loss to whom I may apply myself in this matter I take the last resource by addressing my letter to you directly.

I am dear Sir, prisoner of war in Sibiria; my name is Hugo Loch, Austrian by birth from Vienna and have two brothers there at Toronto. The addres of them was 6 Gough Ave.

But after writing me formerly they had in intention
